Call To Worship

One: May the love of God be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: However you found yourself here, you are welcome!

All: We are welcome in our diversity and disagreement.

We are welcome in our gifts and needs.

One: You are welcome, but be ready for surprise.

All: In our sureness, Christ calls us to think in new ways.

In our orthodoxy, we are called to re-imagine God.

In our safety, we are called to risk our comfort.

In our superiority, we are called to humility.

One: And through all this, we are called to give thanks!

All: Thanks to the one who came to shake up the world!

Hymn #660 VU How Firm A Foundation

Opening Prayer

Holy God, you call to us - like a parent urgently calling from the front step to a child out too late. You call us to follow the way of your son. You call us to be in community. You call us to worship and give thanks. We also call to you with our prayers - we call so that you can stir us from our complacency; we call you to comfort our worries and grief. We call you to remind us that you are here and that you offer all your children your blessing.

We pray to you who is our mother and our father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,

thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil;
for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
